RICARDO HERNANDEZ AROCHO

ABOUT ME

Ricardo is a 20-year retired US Army Combat Camera Soldier with a passion for Videography. He has traveled to over twenty countries where he enjoyed documenting various cultures, meeting new people, and learning new languages.

At the age of 8, Ricardo left Puerto Rico after his father joined the Army. Growing up during an age when telecommunication was still primitive and expensive, he finds it empowering to help Puerto Ricans living away from the island connect to their culture in a way he could not.
